Mr. Langdon,

In response to your letter dated 9/18/08 which was posted in the mail on 10/23/08, I have included a copy of your Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment and what I believe to be what you are looking for in order for me to complete the amendment of my previous claims. I have not been able to talk directly with you, but I will go ahead and send these as I understand your direction. If these are still not in the proper format, please let me know. If you would choose, you could call me at 618-967-6363 to further clarify any revisions which I need to make. Perhaps I could then fax them to you. In a week or two, I will give you a call to see if things are in order. Thanks for your patience.

Respectfully,

Jim Barnett
